Broad based Curriculum Lessons Overview for Year 2017/18 April Lower

1st half term Art, Design and Technology Science. Working on mark making Action reaction and writing skills, using Our school consequence crayons, coloured pencils Lifecycles, from egg to duck experiments and chalk. Water, the water cycle Careers, looking at the world of work Clay for sculpture using and how we use water Water exploration of mediums, different types of clay. Food Technology Geography • Open spaces, exploration of • Independent skills exploring seasonal food our local work environment, 2nd half term Cooking with what we grow farm, shops, station etc. Seasonal changes Food production, where does our food come from Growing our own food Action reaction consequence experiments English(ICT, Summer, seasonal changes, looking at the • .Individua planting pupil difference in climate and lifestyles across the world Using media forms for specific on IEP reinforcement and recreation • AN pupils accessing stories for pleasure individual and small groups, using comprehension Maths History packs • Individual planning on IEP for Personal history, who am I using Education Physical maths. back to school to show our Religious Education Using earn to learn, saving Pupils specific plans for understanding of our place. And citizenship Recreation in the past, what did preparing for adult hood, our parents and grandparents activity and recreation, using Jobs and Careers play with Making choices and decisions sensory plans across the day Mindfulness

Template created by Michael Tidd 2013 www.primarycurriculum.me.uk